To whom it may concern. I am a California resident that at times goes to your exciting city for many different reasons. Family, Casino's, Shows, Tours, Attractions and such. I love to go there! Last year I had the opportunity to ride the "primm course" with my brother in law whom resides in the northern part of Las Vegas. There is so much desert out there it seems to me every one can win. Please reconsider the energy panel proposal to be built at another location. Off roading is a great way for family and friends to have great times together, and "primm" is one of the "safest" places I've ridden, and a lot of fun. I hope to do it again soon! Please reconsider.
