I would like to personally ask for you to reconsider where you are planning on putting these solar panels. I think this will not only hurt las Vegas because almost all the races will stay in hotels in las Vegas because theres not enough hotels in state line but also jean. You should put these in a place that you have already closed because soon ppl will be going in none ohv areas if we do not have places we can go. So this is all i ask please put them in a different place.
